PREFACE

The State Tables Volume compiled in connection with the recent Census forms Part III of the publications issued by the Census Department. Compared to the State Tables Volumes of previous Censuses, it contains a greater body of statistical material than ever before. State Tables Volume of 1901 contained a statement showing Europeans and allied races by talukas. As the number of these communities is very small, it was omitted in the State Tables Volume of 1911, and it has been dropped in this Volume also. The Volumes for 1901 and 1911 gave detailed figures for Caste, Tribe and Race by Talukas. On this occasion, this table has been prepared also in manuscript, but as it is bulky and only rarely required for reference, I have deemed its publication in print to be a piece of useless expenditure. But the manuscript has been carefully preserved in the Census records, so that it may be availed of whenever required, e.g. by the Survey Department in connection with their Revision Settlements for any Talukas. With these exceptions, the other features of the preceding censuses have been retained in this year also. In addition no less than 20 tables have been prepared. These embody the results of all the new enquiries undertaken by this Census—with the exception of the Sex enquiry, tables regarding which are embodied in Chapter VI – Part II of the Report itself. The following is a summary of the new lines of statistical enquiry undertaken by this Census:—

1. The Census of Live Stock ( Tables XXVI–XXVII ).
2. The Size of the Normal Family ( Table XXVIII ).
3. Classification of Homesteads by Standards of Comfort in Talukas and Towns ( Tables XVII–XVIII ).
4. The Tenement Census Enquiry in the City of Baroda ( Tables XIX–XXIII ).
5. Additional data regarding Occupation:
  - ( a ) occupation of English literates,
  - ( b ) the occupation of the urban population and
  - ( c ) occupation of immigrants to the City( Tables XIII, XXIV and XXV ).
6. Additional information regarding Literacy
  - ( a ) literacy in towns, ( b ) literacy by scripts,
  - ( c ) statistics regarding those who though notliterate are able to read only ( Tables X–XII ).
7. Additional and detailed information regarding Age, Sex and Civil Condition in towns and talukas ( Tables VI and VII ).
8. Additional information regarding age-distribution of migrants. ( Tables XV and XVI ).

( 2 )

9. Additional information regarding Civil Condition of the Infirm ( Table XIV ).
10. Enquiry regarding Size and Sex Constitution of Families ( Tables I-VIII in Chapter VI-Part II of the Report ).
11. Statistics regarding Cottage and Rural Industries ( Table XXIX ).

It is sincerely trusted that social investigators will find in these additional data ample material for their study and research. It is hoped also that Government officials will find them useful in their work.

TABLE XII
Literacy by Scripts

In this table, the total of persons able to understand any language or combination of languages includes the total literate as well as the total persons who, though not literate, are able to read printed matter. Separate figures by Talukas of those able to read only are shown in table X of this Volume. The following table gives separate figures for the literates and those able to read only under the total "Able to understand different languages."

*Buildings included in this Table are private Occupied Residences, and Residences with shop combined. Compare column 3 of Table XIX Occupied Official Residences, such as official bungalows, Military and Police lines, public school hostels etc. have been omitted from this Table. The total of families shown in column 9 does not correspond to the Census total of houses, because (i) this Tenement Census was taken in October 1920 and not synchronously with the General Census and (ii) the number does not include families residing in official residences referred to above.
